May you be blessed by God's Word in worship today! Lighting the Advent Candles

The circular shape of the Advent wreath symbolizes God's infinite love for us—it is never-ending, just like the true Light of the World, Jesus, who leads us into eternal life with Him. The materials of the Advent wreath similarly lead us to reflect on the everlasting nature of God; traditionally, Advent wreaths have been made of evergreen leaves, such as pine or fir, which maintain their green color beyond the season in which they are collected. Nowadays, there are many modern interpretations of Advent wreaths that still help us celebrate the traditional meaning of the wreath: preparing the way for the Light of the World, Jesus.

Prayer of Yearning

Julie Oren

Jesus, the Light of the World, as we celebrate your birth, may we begin to see the world in the light of understanding you give us. As you chose the lowly, the outcasts and the poor to receive the greatest news the world had ever known, so may we worship you in meekness of heart. May we also remember our brothers and sisters less fortunate than ourselves in this season of giving. Amen.

Hymn	O Come, All Ye Faithful	Hymn #182
The Use of Hymns in Worship		Janet Key
First Reading: Psalms 149: 1-9 (King James Version)		Julie Oren
Praise ye the Lord. Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.
Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.
For the Lord taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.
Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.
Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand;
To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;
To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;
To execute upon them the judgment written: this honor have all his saints. Praise ye the Lord.

The Gift of Music	Is It True? - Craig Curry	Soloist, Pam Kothrade
Second Reading: Psalms 150: 1-6 (King James Version)		Julie Oren
Praise ye the Lord. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.
Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.
Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.
Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.
Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.
Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

The Gloria    Glory to God, whose goodness shines on me
And to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me,
And to the Spirit, whose love has set me free.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.
                  World without end, without end, Amen.
                  World without end, without end, Amen.
                  World without end, without end. Amen.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

Invitation to Generosity

Julie Oren

The blessings we receive—in wisdom, in years, and in favor—are meant to be shared. When we use these gifts to sustain the ministry of the church and respond to the needs of the community, we personify the good news in the world! Let us give with boldness and boundless trust in the provision of the Creator of all.

Dec 31! Yes, you heard that correctly, by Dec 31. We have decided to meet the new year "head on" with a goal of $11,000 in order to meet our 2026 budget.

Please take a look at the lovely poster board Christmas tree display in our chapel. Thank you, Jan Naefken for creating this beautiful display! Each time we collect a total of $500, a new ornament will be placed on the tree. When we have reached our $11,000 goal, we will add the bright yellow star to the top of the Christmas tree!

Consider donating $100, $250, $500, $1,000, or however much the spirit moves you. During this time of Christmas celebration, please contribute until it feels good!

Please place your gift in the envelope provided in your letter. If you prefer, you can scan the QR code located on the poster in the chapel. Or, you may use another envelope, as long as you kindly include your name and the notation "Stewardship Campaign." Let's pull together in a BIG way to meet our goal by Dec 31!
